

GEORGE S. AND DOLORES DORÉ ECCLES

F O U N D A T I O N

PRESERVATION & CONSERVATION

Following are examples of grants made by the George S. and Dolores Doré Eccles Foundation in this focus area during the past three years.

$1,000 – 49,999

2004: Allen and Alice Stokes Nature Center

For general support of the Stokes Nature Center school programs and field expeditions

Castleland RC&D

To support the rainwater collection project for Navajo families in San Juan County, Utah

Healthy Environment Alliance of Utah

To support the “DONT” program, Downwinders Opposed to Nuclear Testing

2003: Trout Unlimited/The Utah Water Project

To support the Utah Water Project, which is designed to protect and restore Utah’s rivers and streams

Utah Rivers Conservation Council

To support the water conservation campaign, which will work to protect Utah’s river ecosystems from the unnecessary impacts of wasteful water use

2002: Color Country Resource Conservation and Development Council

To assist in funding the Movement Through the Corridor exhibit in the Red Canyon Visitor Center

Dinosaur Nature Association

In continued support of the restoration of the historic 1914 Josie Bassett Cabin at Dinosaur National Monument near Vernal, Utah

Friends of Wasatch Mountain State Park

To complete restoration of the century-old Tate Barn in Midway, Utah, at the entrance to Solider Hollow

Moroni Heritage Development Commission

To help complete the restoration of the historic 1891 Moroni Opera House for use as a theater and community center

Partners in Parks

To support the Zion partners Native Plant Restoration Program in Zion National Park, Utah

TreeUtah

To support the statewide urban forestry education and training programs to improve Utah’s quality of life by planting and caring for trees

$50,000 – 99,999

- 2004: This is the Place Heritage Park
To support the Historic Education Programming
- 2003: City of West Jordan
To assist in renovating the Old Rock Meeting House
- Trust for Public Land
To purchase, through a conservation easement, the 1,563-acre Brooke Ranch in Logan, Utah
- 2002: Panoramaland Resource Conservation and Development Council
To restore and improve Fairview's Main Street to help preserve the culture and history of the city

$100,000 – 499,999

- 2004: Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church
To assist in restoring and renovating the historic Holy Trinity Cathedral
(Payment of multi-year pledge)
- 2003: Cache County Courthouse
To assist in renovating the historic Cache County Courthouse
- First Presbyterian Church Preservation Foundation
To finish restoration on the Church
- Friends of the Tracy Aviary
To assist in renovation of the historic Chase Mill in Liberty Park
- Grand Canyon Trust
To assist in purchasing nine parcels of land located in the Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument
- 2002: Greater Ogden Community Nature Center
To assist in constructing a new Education Center at part of its 25th Anniversary Campaign
- University of Utah
Red Butte Garden and Arboretum - To assist in the acquisition and construction of Horticulture Greenhouses
- To support the Big Bugs Return exhibit, featuring sculpted insects from polished woods, textured barks, and other natural forest materials – ranging from size from 10 to 25 feet long and 18 feet tall

$500,000 – 999,999

2003: Utah Open Lands

To support its Holistic Ranchland Protection Project and support its conservation easement of Hi Ute Ranch

$1,000,000 +

2002: Nature Conservancy of Utah

In continued support of the Lasting Landscapes campaign, the largest public/ private conservation initiative in the state's history to address the accelerating loss of Utah's wetlands, critical wildlife habitats, farmlands, riparian system, and key natural areas